FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Harold H. Howard has been appointed an instructor in botany at Montana State University, Missoula, and Robert C. Langenbach has rejoined the MSU faculty as an instructor in business administration, Dr. Gordon B. Castle, acting president of the University, announced.

Langenbach taught commercial subjects at Missoula High School from 1951-56 and was on the MSU School of Business Administration faculty in 1956-57. He spent last year at the University of California at Los Angeles working toward a doctorate and serving as a teacher assistant in business administration.

A native of Helena, Langenbach earned a B. A. in business administration from MSU in 1950 and an M. A. in education in 1951. Before he entered the University, he served three years with the army in the Pacific.

Howard has been working toward the Ph. D. degree at Cornell University for the past two years. He earned a B. S. in botany in 1953 and an M. S. in plant physiology in 1956 from Cornell. As a graduate assistant he did research in plant physiology and aquatic ecology.

Howard served in the Navy in World War II and with the Merchant Marine for a time after the war. He is married and has two children.
